DEDICATION SYMPOSIUM TO BE HELD IN UNIVERSITY'S NEW PERFORMING ARTS/RADIO-TELEVISION CENTER

MISSOULA -

A dedication symposium for the University of Montana's new Performing Arts/Radio-Television Center will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 10, in the new building's Montana Theatre.

Titled, "The Arts and Telecommunications in Rural America: Roles and Responsibilities," the symposium features Frank S.M. Hodsoll, chairman for the National Endowment for the Arts, and Van Gordon Sauter, executive vice president of CBS/Broadcast Group.

Responding to their presentations will be Pat Williams, U.S. representative for District 1, and Sister Kathryn Martin, dean of the School of Fine Arts. UM President Neil S. Bucklew will chair the symposium.

An awards presentation follows at which Hodsoll will receive an award on behalf of the National Endowment for the Arts, which is celebrating its 20th anniversary. The award honors excellence in the arts and the support of the arts in rural America.

An award for excellence in broadcasting will be presented to Van Gordon Sauter. Sauter, a graduate of the University of Missouri Graduate School of Journalism, joined CBS in 1968.

The symposium, the awards ceremony and the reception immediately following are open to the public and free of charge.
